A Training Program Designed To Get Results

Concept

This program creates maximum success in your workplace through training in the five essential areas needed by all employees, from support staff to top management.

Instruction & Facilitation

Time-tested concepts are used, along with the presenter's insights and ideas. Creative activities, individual exercises, humorous animations, contests and prizes are utilized to create engaging learning experiences. All sessions are customized to meet client's needs.

Motivation & Retention

Participants are encouraged to use applicable concepts in all aspects of their lives therefore increasing motivation and retention.

Reinforcement & Follow-Up

Review and Q&A segments throughout the training sessions provide the repetition to reinforce learning and create habits for success.

Offered as a complete success series or as individual sessions to meet specific needs.

The Five Essential Areas of Training

Customer Service

Participants learn to provide extraordinary and rewarding customer experiences that increase the bottom line. Serving and appreciating customers is everyone's responsibility.

Teamwork

Participants learn to work together as a team with respect, responsibility, accountability, integrity, determination and focus on a common mission and goals.

Communication Skills

Participants learn to listen, speak, resolve conflicts, identify their behavioral style and adjust to the style of others to become effective communicators.

Time Management

Participants learn to maximize their time and productivity, by planning, prioritizing, being organized and assertive as well as doing the right things at the right time.

Presentation Skills

Participants learn to control nervousness, engage audiences, be more confident and effective when presenting through proper preparation, practice and delivery.

Just Get Serious About Success™

In this speech, Donna reveals how individuals can achieve greater success in their personal and professional lives. It includes evaluating yourself; discovering your talents; setting and achieving goals; eliminating negative habits and more.

Life Lessons Learned In Corporate America

Donna shares with audiences, lessons she learned during her 20+ years working in corporate America and how they can use them to be more successful.

It's All About Connecting

During this speech Donna provides ideas about building positive friendships and professional relationships and dismantling or limiting those that are negative or passive. Donna helps audiences understand the value of networking and netweaving.

Dating, Mating & the Media (New)

Donna enlightens audiences with insights on how the media and marketing impacts relationship expectations and behaviors. She shares how they can adjust their thinking and actions to be more in line with their needs and values so they have more fulfilling relationships.

Additional speeches can be created to reflect the theme of a meeting or conference by the title, topic, and content presented. They have been developed for and presented at retreats, conventions, membership drives and fund-raisers.

About Donna ...

She is the 2008 - 2009 winner of The Best Motivational Speaker in 5 Minutes or Less sponsored by The Twinkie Awards, which honors small business creativity and excellence.

Passionate about helping people be more successful, Donna is the co-founder of Women Aspiring Together To Succeed (WATTS). Founded in 2000, WATTS continues to inspire, motivate, and empower its members through her presentations, and her leadership.

Donna is a member of the National Speakers Association (NSA) and is the past recipient of the NSA Georgia Chapter's Spirit Award for her outstanding commitment and contributions.

Prior to her business, Donna worked at Clairol Inc. for over 15 years. Because of her decision to "just get serious" about continuing her education, and excelling at her work, she was the first administrative assistant promoted into a management level marketing position at the company.

Her continued "get serious" attitude led to other promotions, various awards, recognition as one of the company's experts on field-based analysis and her last position of Category Development Manager.

In 2002 Donna left Clairol to pursue her desire to help businesses develop their employees and help people become more successful. Her clients have included City of Atlanta, Coca-Cola Company, Centers for Disease Control and many others.
